The operators of Scotland's largest caravan, motorhome and holiday home exhibition is announcing a brand new show south of the border. Go Explore will run at the Farnborough International Exhibition Centre from 24-26 March 2023 and will be the only indoor show dedicated to caravans, motorhomes, campervans, holiday homes, lodges and tents in the south.

Tickets for Go Explore will go on sale on Wednesday 8th June - the same day that tickets go on sale for The Scottish Caravan, Motorhome and Holiday Home Show, which will run from the 2-5 February at the SEC in Glasgow

The Scottish Caravan, Motorhome & Holiday Home Show which first ran at the SEC in 1987, is back for the first time since February 2020 and will bring 200 of the best UK touring brands together under one roof, including stylish motorhomes, caravans, campervans, tents, luxury lodges, marine products and camping accessories.

There will be expert advice on the best places to visit across Scotland, top adventure locations and general guidance on making the most of Scotland's great outdoors. All the latest models, technology and some amazing new holiday homes will also be on display to help give holidaymakers inspiration for their next trip.

Similarly, the new Go Explore show at Farnborough will feature a wide selection of touring, camping and holiday home inspiration.

Darren Brechin, Group Show Director at QD Events said: "It's wonderful to be back planning our 2023 event. We're also extremely excited to be announcing our new Go Explore show in Farnborough, our first ever touring holiday show south of the border.

"We work hard to bring visitors the best brands and expertise to our shows and they'll be in for a treat at both these events in 2023 as we welcome friends old and new to inspire holiday makers in some of the most exciting new trends in camping, touring and enjoying the great outdoors."

Tickets for both shows go on sale at 10am on Wednesday 8th June. Early bird offers are available to newsletter subscribers.
